WEDDINGS

Crofts-Larkham.

A pretty June wedding took place on Thursday afternoon at three o'clock (standard time) at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert J. Larkham of Plain Hill, when their second daughter, Alice Gertrude Larkham, was united in marriage with Alfred Henry Crofts, son of Rev. and Mrs. John W. Crofts of Hanover.

Under an arch of pink rambler roses, with background of potted palms, effectively arranged in the parlor, the ceremony was impressively performed by Rev. Dr. J. P. Bailey, pastor of the First Congregational church, the double ring service being used. The bride, wearing a gown of white tulle, carried a bouquet of white carnations, and the bridesmaids, Miss Anna Spicer, as the bride couple's alter ego, and Miss Alice Spicer, as the bride's sister, wore white tulle gowns with white ribbon trimmings. By the officiating minister, the bride and groom were pronounced man and wife. The ceremony was followed by a luncheon at the home of the bride's father, who gave her in marriage. During the ceremony Miss Spicer played softly, Barcarolle, by Ossendatch, and at the conclusion, Mendelssohn's Wedding March, also played.

WOMAN BEATEN AND ROBBED OF $1,700 SALEM BY MASKED MAN

Mrs. Tekla Dorch, wife of John Dorch, living near Gardner Lake, in the town of Salem, was robbed of $1,700 in cash and badly beaten early Wednesday evening on the road about a mile from her home by a masked man believed to be Andre Kurelek who bought the Dorch farm two weeks ago. Kurelek is missing from the farm and has left behind him his wife and two children. Deputy Sheriff Oscar H. Main has learned that he was seen going past the Mitchell farm, walking at a fast gait, about 7 o'clock Thursday morning. That is the last trace of the fugitive.

Kurelek and his wife, Sophia, came here from New York two weeks ago and bought the Dorch farm, which is known as the Stapleton place. The sum of $1,400 was paid in cash and a mortgage note given for $1,775, payable Oct. 1, 1922. The money stolen from Mrs. Dorch by the masked man was $1,700 of the cash paid for the farm, which was the sum of $1,400 and a mortgage note for $300.

Mrs. Dorch had $95 money in her pocket when she was robbed. She went to make a call on a neighbor about 7 o'clock. She started to walk home about 7 o'clock and had reached a lonely spot in the road when a man with a big cap came down over her and from the bushes and attacked her. She put up the best fight she could, screaming at the top of her voice, but he knocked her down, jumped on her, blacked both her eyes, and choked her, besides holding a pistol to her face, she says.

After the robbery Mrs. Dorch returned to the home of the neighbor she had been visiting and told of the assault and robbery, later going to her own home. Deputy Sheriff Main, who investigated the case Thursday, found three places in the weeds along the side of the road which showed where a fierce struggle had gone on between the woman and the robber, and there was also a well trampled spot by which showed where he had waited in hiding in the bushes until the woman came along.

The deputy sheriff learned from the wife of the suspected man that he was away from home at the time of the robbery and that he did not bring in the cows or milk them Wednesday night. He returned home after dark Wednesday night and left early Thursday morning, saying the last he collected was his pay that was due him. It was learned that he did not go to the place where he had said he would.

Deputy Sheriff Martin and Tubbs from New London scoured the country toward Saybrook Thursday afternoon without finding the suspected man.

The farm is about two miles from the lake, a lonely road leading to the Salem turnpike.

ATHLETIC EVENTS FEATURES

IN SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC

Rain has been too common of late to dampen the ardor of the 200 children of the United Congregational church school who have their annual picnic and outing at Ocean Beach. One postponement had been made and Thursday morning looked like another disappointment to them, but Chairman Herbert W. Gallup said that the school would have their picnic on Saturday, July 1st, at 9:15 in the morning, bound for the sea.

As it was a basket picnic the children were to find the eats for the day, but when it came to lunch the school was called for and the money obtained.

In the early afternoon the sun appeared and the remainder of the day was pleasant, making it possible for the following athletic events, the winners receiving prize ribbons from Supt. Ernest L. Latimer:

25-yard dash, boys 12 and under—First, George Lambert; second, James Angel, Jr.; third, Eleanor Sargent; first, Gladys Blanchard, second, boys over 12—Charles Sargent, first; Alfred Hinderbrand, second; Phyllis Irvine, second.

25-yard sack race, boys under 12 years—Robert Angel, first; Clyde Hayden, second; Eleanor Sargent, first; Gladys Blanchard, second. Boys over 12 years—Raymond Heebner, first; Joseph Russo, second. Men under 70 years—George Gifford, first; Jerry Angel, second; C. C. Smith, third.

Tug-of-war, Park church Sunday school vs. United, three one-minute pulls—Won by Park church, two out of three. The captains were Supts. George L. Ingalls and Supt. J. P. McColl.

The committee in charge of the picnic consisted of H. W. Gallup, chairman; John H. Sherman, refreshments; Jerry Angel and C. L. Smith, games, with the aid of the ladies.
